

OLEC 3: Construct, Renew, Enhance, and Modify OLE in Accordance with Design Drawings and Specifications - Core Module

Overview of the Course

This core training module is designed for persons whose work will involve the construction, renewal, enhancement and modification of OLE in accordance with design drawings and specifications. To develop the person's ability to carry out construction, renewal, enhancement, and modification of OLE in accordance with design drawings and specifications.

Course Details

COURSE LOADING 8 learners per course

COURSE DURATION 5 days

COURSE CONTENT

- » Explain the operating principles of both the classic and autotransformer OLE systems
- » Describe/explain the functions of the main component parts of the OLE systems
- » Identify and explain the hazards associated with OLE construction activities
- » Explain the requirements for working safely at all times in compliance with health and safety and other relevant regulations and guidelines
- » Explain the limits of their own authority
- » Explain the management and quality control requirements for OLE construction materials
- » Demonstrate an ability to correctly read and interpret design drawings used in OLE construction.
- » Demonstrate an ability to complete selected OLE construction activities in accordance with design drawings, work instructions and specifications
- » Explain recording, reporting and escalation procedures
- » Explain the quality assurance requirements for their work

COURSE DELIVERY MODEL

Classroom and practical sessions in the training span.

PRE-REQUISITES & REQUIREMENTS

Must have an in-date drugs and alcohol & medical. Have a valid sponsor and must have OLEC 2 on the sentinel system.

Completion of the Course

OLEC 3 Core Module will be uploaded onto the sentinel system. The learner will be required to attend equipment/system specific formal training events and on-site development activities designed/developed by individual companies in order to further develop their ability to meet the competence requirements of one or more elements of OLEC 3.

“

“Well delivered - easy to grasp. Left feeling positive.”