

OLEC 1: Access Overhead Lines Construction Sites

Overview of the Course

This module is designed to familiarise persons who are new to OLE Engineering and whose work may involve or interact with OLE Construction activities.

Course Details

COURSE LOADING 12 learners per course

COURSE DURATION 1/2 day

COURSE CONTENT

- » Explain the limits of their personal authority
- » Give a brief description of the main component parts of the OLE infrastructure
- » Describe the main hazards and risks associated with OLE construction sites and activities
- » Follow the safe access procedure
- » Comply with health and safety regulations
- » Complete relevant records accurately and pass them on to the appropriate person.
- » Follow recording & reporting procedures

COURSE DELIVERY MODEL

Theory sessions shall be classroom based led by an approved trainer and shall include a mix of lecture style presentations, group discussions/exercises together with appropriate question and answer interaction with the delegates to ensure learning is taking place. Theory sessions shall be supported with appropriate multimedia presentations.

PRE-REQUISITES & REQUIREMENTS

Must have a valid sponsor and have an in-date drugs and alcohol & medical.

Completion of the Course

OLEC 1 will now be uploaded onto the sentinel system.

“

“Great trainer, made everything easy to understand.”